Edinburgh's Telford College

Edinburgh's Telford College is one of Scotland's largest Further Education Colleges. Based in a custom built learning establishment on Edinburgh's waterfront development, we are proud of our lively and modern learning environment. Students attending this college have the opportunity to study in one of the most technically advanced learning environments in Further Education today.

Moving forward to embrace accessible, responsive and flexible learning the College is committed to widening access and creating opportunity for all.

An exciting and dynamic part of that is the development of opportunities for volunteers.
